3. Here's a testimony from a lady that attended GriefShare who recently lost her husband. Dear friends at Townline.. thank you so much for being a host Church for griefshare. when I felt like I was drowning in sorrow due to the loss of my husband. GriefShare provided the tools I need it to navigate this new and painful journey. I've attended twice have learn new things each time I thank the Lord that you were available in my time of need. God Bless you. sincerely. Sheryl Virgil. The GriefShare team..
4. Thru a series of slightly inconvenient errands, I ended up at meijer today. I was looking at the shelves, as were two other women. Suddenly one turns to leave, then hands me a coupon that she thought might be useful to me. With that opening, she also asked me to pray for her. Her name is Joni and she's meeting her husband John this weekend. They are separated and he is asking for dissolution. They have a seven year old son named Eli. That is all the details I know but she also asked that I tell my mother and church ladies to pray. I wasn't planning to go to meijer, but now I'm glad I did. Join me in prayer? I will probably never see her or have contact with her again but I do not want to forget her. - anonymous
