No admission, but they will take up a free-will offering.

Project Promise

Project Promise offers spiritual and social support for persons with developmental and/or intellectual disabilities. The group meets twice a month on Saturday afternoon. In addition to worship and craft activities, Project Promise hosts the annual Easter play, a summer picnic, a fall retreat, a chicken BBQ fundraiser and other activities during the year.

Project Promise cost of the participant little to nothing for most activities. Volunteers are responsible for the success of Project Promise with the guidance of a volunteer board. Project Promise is blessed with general community and congregational support.
