Announcements:

1. If you signed up for the Plain Church Ministry Card, Dean has them available. He will try to have them in your mailbox next week, however if you need them earlier please get it today.
2. "Sewing is this week, on Tuesday November 19. The starting time has been delayed until after the Birthday Breakfast in honor of Sarah Lantz and others. Hot dish: Naomi Royal, Salad: Arlene Hochstetler, Dessert Mary Mast, Devotions: Fannie Mae Raber "

3. Townline ladies' breakfast is Tuesday, November 19th 9:00 at Tiffany's restaurant in Topeka. We will celebrate Sarah Lantz's 80th, as well as the November birthdays. All ladies are welcome! RSVP to Abby Yoder if you plan to attend
4. Brittany Yoder is back over in Greece serving the refugees. Her living expenses are approximately $1,000 per month. The finance team and the elder team are in agreement that Townline would support Brittany Yoder out of the Mission Fund on $500 per month basis for the next year. We would ask Brittany's friends and the church to consider how to cover the other $500 per month, this could be done via a link on our Townline website or just dropping an envelope in the offering box designated "Brittany Yoder". We would encourage individuals to support her on a monthly basis so she can focus on serving and not fund raising.
5. There is an open house planned for Vernon Thomas's 90th birthday on November 24, 1:30-3:30, at Meadow View golf club on St. RD. 13 in Middlebury. Come help us celebrate!
6. The date for this year's Christmas program has been changed to Dec. 15th.
7. Next Sunday, Nov. 24th is Harvest Sunday, which is the one Sunday a year that we gather groceries at church for a couple families we know. Everyone is invited to bring groceries, paper products, laundry and cleaning supplies. You may also bring frozen, home baked and canned food. We encourage to give as an act of worship and gratitude, first to our Father who has graciously given us all things, secondly to the recipients.
8. Next Saturday morning Nov. 23rd, we are having a men's Bible study and breakfast in the back room of Jefferson's Café at 7:00 am. Jefferson's Café is Paul & Melinda's restaurant in Millersburg, IN.
